

Dear Partners,

We have the pleasure to invite you to take part in the Second Erasmus Staff Training Week, organized by University of Ruse, Bulgaria in the period 12-16 May, 2014, under the theme Erasmus +: New skills for better jobs.

The program includes different events, dedicated to the challenges and perspectives within Erasmus +.

A workshop under the title “Erasmus + and the Knowledge Alliances” will give the opportunity for discussing new ways of acquiring important transversal skills through more intensive cooperation between higher education and enterprises. All presentations will be published in a special issue.

Participants, interested in specific field of study or administrative work will have individual meetings with corresponding representatives of the University of Ruse.

The guests of our University will be given the chance to learn more about Bulgarian culture, history and traditions in the especially organized cultural program.

We would be very pleased to welcome you in Ruse and to share experience and pleasant time with us.

Application form, detailed program and accommodation information will be sent to you by the end of February.

We will be very glad to receive your applications until 31st of March to stafftraining2014@uni-ruse.bg.

Assoc. Prof. Juliana Popova, PhD – vice rector and institutional Erasmus coordinator and International office team
